Excess & Security Deposit

The full excess amount as decided by the client per vehicle, will be the liability of the Renter. Authorization is given below by giving the relevant credit card details and providing signature on collection of the vehicle. This will be held on record as assurance. Charges will only be charged to the client once the vehicle has been returned and after any further charges that may occur when the vehicle is returned has been recovered: minor damages and repairs, vehicle returned without a full tank of fuel, speeding fines, under-body damage. (Client will be notified if charges are to be put through). Should none of these apply, there will be no charges to the credit card.

Termination of Rental

- Clients are requested to allow at least 30 minutes returning the vehicle and settling any possible final charges.
- Keys are to be handed to Namib's Roos Safari Tours personnel only.
- Namib's Roos Safari Tours will not be liable for any losses incurred by the client due to flights missed. It is the client's responsibility to allow ample time to return to the point of departure and allow for any possible delays along the way.

Insurance Cover

The following is not covered by the cover option:

- Personal Property
- Personal injury / death
- Sandstorm and water damage
- Under-carriage damage
- Own negligence

We strongly recommend that all clients have travel insurance for medical expenses, baggage loss, cancellation/curtailment, default and personal injury or death due to an accident. This is not included in the rental agreement.

Factors that will negate all cover Insurance Cover

- Gross or criminal negligence
- Speeding on gravel and tarmac roads. Maximum of 80kph on gravel roads (recommend 70kph). It is highly recommended to engage the 4-wheel-drive system when driving on any gravel road as this offers greater control and stability.
- Vehicle accident where no other vehicle is involved
- Unauthorized drivers – copy of license not provided pre-rental
- Failing to obtain authorization to extend the rental
- Not reporting an accident or loss to the Namibia Police immediately

Initial

- Not reporting an accident or loss to Namib's Roos Safari Tours immediately
- Not adhering to traffic, road and driving rules and regulations
- Driving under the influence of alcohol or any illegal substance
- Unsuitable or reckless driving
- Road conditions not suitable for the type of vehicle rented
- Unauthorized country border crossings
- Not being able to produce keys in case of theft
- Not reporting exact details of last known location of vehicle prior to theft
- Any off-road or dune driving nor any un-proclaimed roads
- Any driving in unauthorized areas such as west of the Sesfontein area – unless this area is included in the itinerary of the particular tour/safari.
- Own negligence

Breakdown & Roadside Assistance

Assistance will be provided in the event of a breakdown or any roadside emergency by our representatives authorized to do so. Where a vehicle can't be repaired, a replacement vehicle will be delivered. Recovery of the vehicle and/or roadside mechanical assistance will necessitate extra charges and be billed to the client, except where such a vehicle failure is not caused by the client. Where a vehicle cannot continue under this agreement due to negligence, accident or fault on behalf of the Renter this agreement will become null and void. A new contract will take effect to the replacement vehicle with all conditions, rates, excesses and other implications ditto to this agreement.

- If a vehicle cannot continue for any reason where the Renter is not negligent or any breach of contract, the vehicle will be repaired or replaced without extra costs.
- If a vehicle cannot continue for any reason due to Renter negligence or any breach of contract, the contract will become nil and void and payments/monies forfeited. If a replacement vehicle is supplied, this will be done on a new contract and full rental payment will be required.

Please note that in this African sub-region, roads and areas can be quite remote and assistance can take from a few hours to a day or two.

General

- Vehicles must be returned in the same condition as received, including all accessories, equipment and fuel at roughly the same level as on rental. If less, a calculated amount will be charged;
- Vehicles included in this package is subject to the terms and conditions of the rental agreement, laws of Namibia and our insurance policies;
- We reserve the right to substitute vehicles with a similar vehicle;
- As this falls within a package, keeping a vehicle beyond the return date, must be arranged 48-hours in advance,
